SUMMER CAMP

CB Stirling Extreme Camp 2022

Today's Family 🌸 Extreme Camp 2022

Week 1: July 4-8

Monday, July 4
Welcome to Camp!
Bricks of Belonging

Welcome to Camp! Children will create building blocks filled with images and words on what makes each one of them unique. The blocks will create a program wide mural on belonging.

Outside, we will use our five senses on a sensory walk exploring all our green space has to offer.

Tuesday, July 5
Nature Journals

Today, campers will start their own nature journal: a special book where they can record all the interesting things they see, smell, hear, feel, eat and wonder about throughout the summer.

Wednesday, July 6
Bronte Creek
Provincial Park

Campers will hit the trails in search of wildlife. We're off to explore the Halfmoon Valley trail looping us on 1km hike through sensitive wetlands. After we have worked up a sweat hiking, we head over to the pool for a refreshing swim.

Thursday, July 8
Food From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing hummus and veggies.

Friday, July 8
Camp Banner

Today, we are declaring our camp pride. Together we will design a banner that will represent our camp. This flag will go with us everywhere showing our camp pride!

We will spend the afternoon outdoors playing various team building games.

Week 2: July 11-15

Monday, July 11
Self-Portraits

DON'T FORGET!!!
Be sure to bring a nut-free lunch, swim suit, towel, sunscreen, refillable water bottle, comfortable shoes and a hat every day.

Today we will continue to cultivate a sense of belonging for everyone at camp. Using various art mediums (printmaking, pastels, paint and collage) campers will create self portraits representing themselves to display around the program

Tuesday July 12
Who Lived Here?

Today campers will ask who lived on the land our program is on before we did using this map. Campers will find a way that feels personal to them to honor and give thanks to the land and the people who lived here before us by sitting in nature with their journal to express their gratitude.

What to expect at our Backyard Camp each and every week...

Artasia

Artasia is a thematic annual arts initiative, bringing children together, community-wide, to discover the transformative power of the arts. Culture for Kids in the Arts will join us each week to engage the campers in a variety of arts activities.

Community Park Exploration

Community Parks create a relaxed space in which our campers can connect and interact. New friendships are formed, and a sense of community develops that is important for good mental health and a feeling of belonging.

A Focus on Time Spent Outside

Spending time outdoors is essential to every child's development, health and well-being. It builds a connection to our rich natural and cultural heritage. Kids connected to nature grow up caring for the Earth and helping to conserve biodiversity.

Wednesday, July 13
Wild Water Works

Pack your bathing suit, because today is going to be a splash! Wild Waterworks is the largest water park in Hamilton, complete with splash pads, a lazy river and an outdoor wave pool. We'll break for lunch and then get back to water.

Thursday, July 13
Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing summer rolls.

Friday, July 15
How the Fox Got His Legs Crossed

We are reading, "How the Fox Got His Legs Crossed His Legs" and other stories by Indigenous Authors today. Campers will be encouraged to wonder about animals and people and why they do the things they do. (eg. why does a skunk smell, why does the fox have a bushy tail?)

Campers will then take all this wondering to create their own stories to share with each other.

Week 3:
July 18-22

Monday, July 18
Story Telling Through Water

Campers are going to arrive at camp today bringing with them a jar of water from somewhere they spent time this weekend. It could be from their kitchen tap, a pool, pond or lake! Campers will demonstrate their personal relationship to water by telling the story of their weekend through this natural artifact: where they had been, what they had done, and with whom they had spent their time.

Tuesday, July 19
The Mess We Made

Campers will read, "The Mess We Made" visualizing water pollution problems with art. Through various water cleaning experiments we hope to inspire our young conservationists in-the-making to work towards a sustainable future.

Wednesday, July 20
Creek Life
Bronte Creek Provincial Park

Today we are taking the Half Moon Valley Trail down to the edge of Bronte Creek. Here we will explore the shoreline looking for water bugs and other aquatic life. Campers will also examine the effects of humans have had on the waterway and brainstorm ways they can help keep waterways clean in their community.

After a picnic lunch, campers will have the opportunity to go for a swim in the pool.

Thursday, July 21
Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing fruit paletas.

DON'T FORGET!!!

☀️ ☀️ ☀️

Be sure to bring a nut-free lunch, swim suit, towel, sunscreen, refillable water bottle, comfortable shoes and a hat every day.

Friday, July 22
Recycled Fashion Show

Campers can bring in recycling from their home to turn into sustainable fashions. Our show stopping looks made from beautiful junk will save items from the landfill and have them landing on our camp runway.

Week 4:
July 25-29

Monday, July 25
We Are the Water Protectors

Campers will read, "We Are the Water Protectors" by Anishinaabe/Metis author Carole Lindstrom to learn ways to make an impact in your community and further protect the Earth and our waters in everyday life.

Tuesday, July 26
What Can We Protect?

We Are the Water Protectors is full of images showing humans as one with nature. Campers will draw a picture of them with something from nature or a natural resource that they would like to protect.

Wednesday, July 27
Bingemans Fun Park

Half water park, half sports centre, and a whole lot of fun! Today we will be going to Bingemans! The water park includes water slides, a gradual entry wave pool, and a giant splash area. We'll also practice our putting on the mini-golf course!

Thursday, July 28
Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing pitas and zatar.

Friday, July 29

Tie Dye Art

We're getting creative at camp today with a tie-dyeing extravaganza! Remember to bring in an article of white or light coloured clothing to turn into the ultimate fashion statement. No white clothes? No Problem!

We'll have a few peices on hand for you to make your colourful creation.

Week 5:
August 1-5

Monday August 1

Program closed for the statutory holiday.

Tuesday, August 2
Rock Storytelling

Campers are going to arrive at camp today bringing with them a rock or stone from somewhere they have spent time.

After sharing their rock's story, campers will head outside to collect natural materials to create a map of where their rock was found.

Wednesday, August 3
Kickball
Bronte Creek

Today, the campers will test their kickball skills in a friendly game against our fellow campers. We're keeping record of the score and will combine them throughout the summer to see who ends up on top! After we have worked up a sweat we will spend the afternoon swimming in the pool.

Thursday, August 4

Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing onigiri (Japanese rice balls).

Friday, August 5

Calls to Action

Today, campers will explore Spirit Bear's Calls to Action towards Truth & Reconciliation in our community. We will have camper's voices be heard by writing and performing our own public service announcement.

Week 6:
August 8-12

Monday, August 8

When We Are Kind

Today campers are using Monique Gray Smith's book, When We Are Kind, to brainstorm ways we can perform acts of kindness throughout the week. Campers will work together to think about ways they can show acts of kindness in their community.

Tuesday, August 9
Mural Planning

Today, using various art mediums, campers will explore identity, community, family and peers exploring techniques to help develop a visual language. Various mediums (printmaking, drawing with charcoal and pastels, paint and collage) will be used which, will contribute to the overall design of the mural to be created later in the week.

Wednesday, August 10

Royal Botanical Gardens

Today, we'll explore the Royal Botanical Gardens! Be on the lookout for some of the prettiest flowers from around the world. We'll also learn some useful gardening tips and inspire our campers to connect with their green thumbs. Children will have the opportunity to explore the Hendrie Valley trail and play in the natural playground.

Thursday, August 11

Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing kiwifruit salad cones.

Friday, August 12
Mural Art

Our campers are taking the inspiration they found earlier in the week and designing their own mural to be placed outside their site. Campers will fill large sheets of plywood with their ideas and paint creating our very own Adventure Camp mural.

Week 7:
August 15-19

Monday, August 15
What Makes Me, Me?

Today we are asking our campers to share what makes them unique. Campers can write, draw, collage or paint to share their various identities with the group.

We will also spend time outdoors building our nature connection to the land we play and learn on, asking questions such as

DON'T FORGET!!!

Be sure to bring a nut-free lunch, swim suit, towel, sunscreen, refillable water bottle, comfortable shoes and a hat every day.

"what stories can we find in this place, and who was here first?"

Tuesday, August 16
Habitat Hunting

Today, campers will be detectives in their outdoor space looking for what plants and animals live there. They will explore ideas of where things live, what is around the area and where does it get food/water?

Back inside, campers will make a colour representation of the species and habitat they discovered. We will out them all together to create our own Habitat Diversity Mural.

Wednesday, August 17
Kickball Tournament
Bronte Creek

Today, the campers will test their kickball skills in a friendly game against our fellow campers. We're keeping record of the score and will combine them throughout the summer to see who ends up on top! After we have worked up a sweat we will spend the afternoon swimming in the pool.
