SUMMER
CAMP

Collegiate
Kinder Camp
2022

Today's Family Kinder Camp 2022

Week 1: July 4-8

Monday, July 4 Welcome to Camp! Bricks of Belonging

Welcome to Camp! Children will create building blocks filled with images and words on what makes each one of them unique. The blocks will create a program wide mural on belonging.

Outside, we will use our five senses on a sensory walk exploring all our green space has to offer.

Tuesday, July 5 Nature Journals

Today, campers will start their own nature journal: a special book where they can record all the interesting things they see, smell, hear, feel, eat and wonder about throughout the summer.

Wednesday, July 6 Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing hummus and veggies.

Thursday, July 8 Bronte Creek Provincial Park

Today, We are going to hit the trails to explore our surroundings. Campers will be introduced to trail blazing and learn what it takes to be safe in the forest. After taking a lunch break, the campers will walk down the trail to the pool where we will have the opportunity to go swimming.

Friday, July 8 Camp Banner

Today, we are declaring our camp pride. Together we will design a banner that will represent our camp. This flag will go with us everywhere showing our camp pride!

We will spend the afternoon outdoors playing various team building games.

Week 2: July 11-15

DON'T FORGET!!!

Be sure to bring a nut-free lunch, swim suit, towel, sunscreen, refillable water bottle, comfortable shoes and a hat every day.

campers will create self portraits representing themselves to display around the program.

Tuesday July 12 Who Lived Here?

Today campers will ask who lived on the land our program is on before we did using this map. Campers will find a way that feels personal to them to honor and give thanks to the land and the people who lived here before us by sitting in nature with their journal to express their gratitude.

Monday, July 11 Self-Portraits

Today we will continue to cultivate a sense of belonging for everyone at camp. Using various art mediums (printmaking, pastels, paint and collage)

What to expect at our Backyard Camp each and every week...

Artasia

Artasia is a thematic annual arts initiative, bringing children together, community-wide, to discover the transformative power of the arts. Culture for Kids in the Arts will join us each week to engage the campers in a variety of arts activities.

Community Park Exploration

Community Parks create a relaxed space in which our campers can connect and interact. New friendships are formed, and a sense of community develops that is important for good mental health and a feeling of belonging.

A Focus on Time Spent Outside

Spending time outdoors is essential to every child's development, health and well-being. It builds a connection to our rich natural and cultural heritage. Kids connected to nature grow up caring for the Earth and helping to conserve biodiversity.

Wednesday, July 13
Food From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing summer rolls.

Thursday, July 14
Planting Seeds of Hope

Planting Seeds of Hope is 46 acres of organic farmland alive with wildflowers, hiking trails, medicine gardens, a young forest, orchards and a one-acre wetland. Campers will enjoy the colours, sights and sounds of an ever-changing landscape, while learning about ecology, conservation, and restoration while engaging with the natural world in ways that are personally meaningful.

Friday, July 15
How the Fox Got His Legs Crossed

We are reading, "How the Fox Got His Legs Crossed His Legs" and other stories by Indigenous Authors today. Campers will be encouraged to wonder about animals and people and why they do the things they do. (eg. why does a skunk smell, why does the fox have a bushy tail?) Campers will then take all this wondering to create their own stories to share with each other.

Week 3:
July 18-22

Monday, July 18
Story Telling Through Water

Campers are going to arrive at camp today bringing with them a jar of water from somewhere they spent time this weekend. It could be from their kitchen tap, a pool, pond or lake! Campers will demonstrate their personal relationship to water by telling the story of their weekend through this natural artifact: where they had been, what they had done, and with whom they had spent their time.

Tuesday, July 19
The Mess We Made

Campers will read, "The Mess We Made" visualizing water pollution problems with art. Through various water cleaning experiments we hope to inspire our young conservationists in-the-making to work towards a sustainable future.

Wednesday, July 20
Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing fruit paletas.

Thursday, July 21
Spruce Lane Farm
Bronte Creek Provincial Park

Today we're exploring a farm with all sorts of animals to see up close. We will also take a step back in time as we tour the Spruce lane Farmhouse, which dates back to the 19th century. After a picnic

Campers will read, "We Are the Water Protectors" by Anishinaabe/Metis author Carole Lindstrom to learn ways to make an impact in your community and further protect the Earth and our waters in everyday life.

Tuesday, July 26
What Can We Protect?

We Are the Water Protectors is full of images showing humans as one with nature. Campers will draw a picture of them with something from nature or a natural resource that they would like to protect.

Wednesday, July 27

Monday, August 2

Program closed for the statutory holiday.

Tuesday, August 2
Mindful Movement

Today, we are asking our campers to slow things down and check in with their body. We will learn different yoga poses and how to breathe like a bear to manage our bodies, breath and emotions.

Wednesday, August 3
Foods from Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing onigiri (Japanese rice balls).

Thursday, August 4
Wildflower Memory
Bronte Creek
Provincial Park

We are going in search of the most beautiful wildflowers to collect. Each camper will find five plants and then test their fellow camper's memory by playing a game of, "Which One is Missing?" After a picnic lunch, campers will have the opportunity to go for a swim in the pool.

Friday, August 5
Teddy Bear Picnic
Neighbourhood Park

Bring along your favourite cuddly friend and enjoy a day full of teddy bear themed activities including a picnic and bear hunt at our local park.

Week 6:
August 8-12

Monday, August 8
Rock Storytelling

Campers are going to arrive at camp today bringing with them a rock or stone from somewhere they have spent time.

After sharing their rock's story, campers will head outside to collect natural materials to create a map of where their rock was found.

Tuesday, August 9
Sensory Wake Up Walk

Today we are waking up our senses to better explore and observe the environment around us. We will get to know our outdoor space in a different way using our five senses, including our "deer ears" learning how sound is captured in larger spaces.

Wednesday, August 10

Foods From Around the World

Food is an important part of different cultures and can be a fun way for our campers to explore the world around us. Each week our campers will be choosing a different snack from around the world to learn, prepare and celebrate. Today, campers will be preparing kiwifruit salad cones.

Thursday, August 11
Royal Botanical Gardens

Today, we'll explore the Royal Botanical Gardens! Be on the lookout for some of the prettiest flowers from around the world. We'll also learn some useful gardening tips and inspire our campers to connect with their green thumbs. Children will have the opportunity to explore the Hendrie Valley trail and play in the natural playground.

Friday, August 12
Picnic
Neighbourhood Park

Today, we will be taking a walk to our local park where we will spend the day. We will put our sensory awareness skills to the test pairing up with a friend to play the game, "Meet a Tree." After enjoying a picnic lunch we will play games in the vast green space.

Week 7:
August 15-19

Monday, August 15
What Makes Me, Me?

Today we are asking our campers to share what makes them unique. Campers can write, draw, collage or paint to share their various identities with the group.

We will also spend time outdoors building our nature connection to the land we play and learn on, asking questions such as "what stories can we find in this place, and who was here first?"

Tuesday, August 16
Habitat Hunting

Today, campers will be detectives in their outdoor space looking for what plants and animals live there. They will explore ideas of where things live, what is around the area and where does it get food/water?

Back inside, campers will make a colour representation of the species and habitat they discovered. We will put them all together to create our own Habitat Diversity Mural.

Wednesday, August 17
Foods From Around the World
