We will be taking a chartered bus to Bronte Creek Provincial Park to enjoy a tour of Maple Lane. Interpreters costumed for the 1890's will demonstrate different historical ways of collecting and making maple syrup. The tour ends in the middle of Spruce Lane Farm where we will learn how to make fresh maple sugar and visit the various farm animals in the yard. We will also have the opportunity to take a wagon ride to the Pancake House where we will enjoy fresh, hot pancakes with pure maple syrup.

Today we are all Master Chefs and will be spending some time in the kitchen. Campers will be asked earlier in the week for a list of ingredients to gather so that we can have our very own nutritious cooking experience.

Friends from Monkeynastix will come to camp. The team will help campers develop confidence and a positive self-image in a fun and challenging way. Using specialized equipment, Monkeynastix will teach us some good habits to keep when it comes to staying active!

Today we are planning our own party. We will be walking to the grocery store to purchase food supplies, creating our own decorations, and exploring with face paint and crazy hairstyles.
