

seasonal youth opportunities

Quality programs like Today's Family Summer Camp require quality people!

We are looking for:

- Camp Counsellors
- Child and Youth Support Counsellors
- Outdoor Games and Recreation Counsellors
- Employees who are available occasionally or "on call"

You will work with Today's Family staff to provide an adventure-filled summer at our camp sites located in the Hamilton, Norfolk and Burlington communities. Available positions include part-time, full-time and occasional opportunities. Some positions require transportation.

You will:

- Gain experience working with children
- Work in partnership with Today's Family staff and community partners
- Actively participate in all camp program activities (swimming, sports, the arts and weekly outings)

To apply:

Please submit a letter of interest and resume to jobs@todaysfamily.ca with Seasonal Youth Opportunities stated in the subject line by February 16, 2018.

Summer positions are open to students under the age of thirty who are currently attending school full time and will be returning to school in the fall.

Today's Family is an inclusive employer. If accommodation is required, please advise us.
