

Employment Opportunities

Grow and stretch your skills

Quality programs like the ones offered by Today's Family require quality people. If you're an Early Childhood Educator who wants to work in a progressive, respectful environment, we'd love to hear from you.

Today's Family is a professionally run organization which stresses teamwork and personal growth.

What does this mean for you?

You'll be encouraged to grow and stretch your skills, have a variety of work experiences and be part of a company that will work with you towards your success.

Interested in working with children and families?

Requirements:

- Actively plan and participate in all programs
- Knowledge and understanding of the emergent curriculum approach
- Current First Aid and CPR
- Experience working with children
- Awareness of childhood development
- Ability to work in a team setting

Positions Available:

- Before and After School Programs
- Part-time and occasional positions

How to apply:

Please submit your letter of interest and resume to jobs@todaysfamily.ca with the words Before and After School Programs or Occasional Position in the subject line.