

Today's Family
Early Learning and Child Care

Embracing the Future, we're recruiting community leaders to join our volunteer Board of Directors

Today's Family Early Learning and Child Care is a non-profit, charitable agency serving more than 4,000 children (and their parents and caregivers) in Hamilton, Halton, Haldimand-Norfolk, and Oxford County.

Today's Family is eager to embrace the future with the Canada-Wide Early Learning and Child Care Plan. We believe that all children and families deserve affordable, high-quality, accessible, and inclusive child care.

Today's Family's programs and services continue to grow to reflect the strengths and changing needs of families within our communities.

We provide programs in over 75 neighbourhoods. Our programs include licensed home child care, early learning and child care centres, day camps, EarlyON Child and Family Centres, and youth engagement opportunities.

We Believe:

Our Mission

Working together to enrich today's families, we want what's best for children.

Our Vision

Our vision is that every child experience the joy of learning through play.

We Value

Today's Family values caring, collaboration, accountability and innovation.

Caring – We care for the children who take part in our programs, for their families, for our staff, for our community, for our environment.

Collaboration – Together, with other organizations in our city and our province, we can help to make change and chart new directions for all children.

Accountability – Our primary responsibility is the children and families we serve.

Inclusion – Today's Family is committed to promoting diversity, advancing equity and fostering a culture of inclusion.

Innovation – Being creative, trying new things, embracing change.

We have openings for board members with diverse skills, talents, and expertise

If you're as passionate about the well-being of children and families as we are, if you're interested in governing an organization that truly makes a difference, and if you're ready to help steer Today's Family toward a future that is bright and even more impactful, we want to hear from you!

Candidates are assessed using a merit-based process, the primary focus being the degree to which the skills and expertise of the prospective board member meets the needs of Today's Family.

Board members must possess relevant expertise, leadership skills and appropriate experience. In addition, board members must have an interest in and an understanding of local and family opportunities and needs, as well as those of the early learning and child care sector.

We're seeking experts in areas of Community Health, Legal, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, Community Planning, and the Arts.

If this sounds like you, please send a letter of interest and resumé to:
